Research and Evaluation on the Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation of Elderly Individuals and Residents of Residential Care Facilities

Availability: Nationally

Eligible Entities: States, Local Governments, Nonprofit and Profit Organizations, Institutions of Higher Education, Certain Qualified Individuals

Funder: U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, National Institute of Justice

Amount: $1 Million

Deadline: April 16, 2010

Contact: <http://www.ncjrs.gov/pdffiles1/nij/sl000893.pdf>

Description: The Government Accountability Office has repeatedly described a growing concern among Americans about the abuse and neglect of persons living in residential care facilities. Current demographic trends show that our society is aging rapidly, and the number of people living in residential care facilities is rising. Crimes against these populations are similarly expected to increase. Given the paucity of evidence-based data in the field, additional research is urgently needed to inform, evaluate, and improve the efficacy of efforts to protect elderly individuals and residents of residential care facilities and to hold perpetrators of abuse accountable for their crimes.
